How to ride freeB

The freeB bus service provides transportation around town on a fixed route.

- Most freeB bus stops are marked with a "B" sign; however the bus will stop at NJ TRANSIT bus stops and anywhere

About freeB

- freeB is a FREE bus service funded by and serving the Princeton community. The bus is open and available to people of all ages and abilities.
- No service is provided on New Year's Day, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas Day.
- Free transit to UMCP hospital via TigerTransit's Forrestral (F) line is available at Palmer Square. Connecting service on Nassau Street for travel to and from Princeton Rail along the route for passengers where it is safe to do so.

- Scheduled timepoints are listed on this schedule. If you are between two timepoints, use the earlier timepoint to estimate the arrival time of the bus.

- Station is provided by Princeton University TigerTransit Lines and NJ TRANSIT's 605 bus route.
- Service animals and portable oxygen permitted.
- The timetable is available upon request in alternative (accessible) formats.
- Princeton's non-discrimination and route deviation policy is available at <http://www.princetonnj.gov/public-transportation.html>.
